

Beloved,

God loves you! There is nothing you can do to stop him from loving you! His love for you is based on a decision He has made all by himself without any regard to what you do or not, or how you are.

The question is, does God like you? Does He like the way you talk? Does He like the way you treat people? He will never leave you or forsake you, but does He like your company? Does He enjoy hanging out with you? Do you even hang out with Him or do you go through your day and never even talk to, much less WITH him?

Are you friends with God or a Fair-weather friend of God?

I want God to not only love me but like me! I want to be God's BFF! How about you?

I love you!

Pastor Shina
