

Beloved,

Mark 16:7 says "...But, go your way, tell His disciples and Peter, that He goeth before you into Galilee: there ye shall see Him, as He said unto you!"

...As He said! He is the promise keeper! The promise keeper! Hallelujah!

So, what promise are you standing on? Have been holding on to? Rest assured, He is the promise keeper!

A dear pastor in the Austin, Texas area, who has since gone to Heaven, used to say repeatedly on his radio program, "promises, promises. God's promises, He makes them and He keeps them!" He really does!

Make sure you are walking in love and not holding grudges against anybody. If you have been say, "Lord I forgive them!"

Then make sure you outlast the devil, who intends to outlast you!

I love you!
